Employment

Senior Lecturer, DMU, 2020–present. I am teaching undergraduate courses in audio electronics, studio technology and DSP. I have been associate professor, Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU) (2018–19) where I also was Music Communication & Technology (MCT) master programme council leader and MCT programme study leader at NTNU, visiting lecturer and postdoc at Queen Mary University of London (2017–19) and postdoc at Georgia Tech (2015–17). Also, I have been co-founder and chair of the organization Women Nordic Music Technology (WoNoMute) (2018–19) and co-founder and co-chair of the organization Women in Music Tech at Georgia Tech (2016–17). From 2013–14, I was a research fellow at the London Knowledge Lab, University College London Institute of Education. I have been working for 10 years (2000–10) as interaction designer, web designer and web developer with strong background on Internet technologies. I have been employee in companies (2000–10) as well as co-founder of my own interactive media studio (2004–10).
